Welcome Screen

Hey, Boomers!

Feeling festive yet? We're just weeks away from the Season of Goodwill To All (except Dr. Robotnik) and STC is starting to party. To prove it, this issue we're making sure each and every one of you has a totally cool Yule with the Sonic Xmas Deco ('dedication' is you sadcos). That's right, down with failies, elves, stars, etc., there's only one star that should be at the top of any tree - Sonic The Hedgehog!

We've got even more gifts! How about copies of the latest Sonic novels and a great book of Mega Drive Power Tips? There are 50 of these fantastic Virgin books up for grabs! Look for the easy-to-enter freebies elsewhere in this issue and watch out for another fab, prize-packed compoin STC 15.

Always popular this time of year - and any time of year - STC's mega-brilliant comic strips, Join Sonic, Ecco! Decap Attack, and Golden Age in stories that take you to the next level of excitement.

The party continues next issue with a new look for Ecco and some exciting news of a new series starring... Ecco, nearly gave it away. Must be the season of goodwill getting to my circuits.

IMPORTANT DIPLOMATIC NOTE: STC cannot be held responsible for any family feuds resulting from arguments over what should go on top of your tree. If an old-fashioned, much-loved family object (blessings) must go on top of the tree use your imagination and find another location for the Sonic Deco. Wherever you put it, it will shine!

HOW TO USE THE SONIC DECO

Failies are for wimps, man! So, put a true Superstar on top of your Christmas Tree this year with STC's fabulous free gift. Achieve total cool Yuletide by following these simple installation instructions.

1. Select your Christmas tree (this may have been supplied for you). Decorate liberally, taking care to leave the top clear.
2. Grasp your Sonic Xmas Deco firmly and peel off the double-sided tape at its base (fig. a).
3. Position the Deco with grids at the tip of the tree, taking care to follow the important safety tips below.

4. Wrap the tape firmly around the top branch and stick the overlapping edges together with the tape (fig. b). Make sure it is firmly attached.
5. Stand back and admire! You now have the coolest Christmas tree possible!

IMPORTANT SAFETY NOTE: Christmas trees come in all shapes and sizes. Some may be tall you will need artificial aids to get to the top (rocket packs, bat-wings, cannons, pogo sticks - even ladders). Whatever you do, make sure some responsible type person is in the room with you. If you're really cool, you'll get them to do the job for you while you sit back and direct operations.

THUNDERHAWK

game type: FLIGHT SIMULATOR

1 PLAYER

If you've ever dreamed of becoming a helicopter fighter pilot, dream no more. With Thunderhawk, you get to fly the top secret AH-73M Thunderhawk - the Ultimate Flying Machine. The basic idea is to defuse crisis situations which take place in each operation throughout the world. With ten missions and forty-eight operations in places like South America and the South China Seas, the game is pretty big.

When Thunderhawk first loads, an amazing 3D animation is shown which depicts the helicopter in combat. Upon selecting New Game, you will enter a mission briefing which comprises of pilots sitting in a dark room while the commander stands at the front by a projector. The commander explains exactly what you must do to complete the operation. Stand by for take off.

Once in the air, you fly to search of all primary targets and blast them away using either a gun, missiles or rockets. Whilst flying around the targets you are attacked from the air by both aeroplanes and helicopters. If all main primary targets are taken out, you will have completed that operation and receive a medal for your efforts. Failing the mission will result in a demerit; three demerits results in game over.

Flying around in the chopper is so realistic you end up believing you're actually in one. Some excellent between-game animations are included, and the in-game speech has been recorded by an actor. Mostly rock music accompanies the game and creates a great atmosphere.

If you don't normally enjoy flight simulators, I guarantee you will enjoy Thunderhawk. At best the Mega CD is showing what it can do in terms of moving 3D graphics at speed. Let's hope all future games are this good, if not better, for Sega's CD machine. - DG.

CHUCK ROCK 2 SON OF CHUCK

game type:
PLATFORM
 1 PLAYER

The Rock family are a very active lot. Hiding dinosaurs on the lead with a club! It's just not healthy you know!

Chuck has become a father since the first Chuck Rock game, and is now the owner of the highly successful Chuck Motors. However, an unsavoury character called Brick Jagger kidnaps Chuck without sign of a rescue. That is until Chuck Junior bursts out from his play pen, to rescue his dad (as Chuck Junior, you make your way through six different scenes of platform action, each comprising of several zones and an end of level battle).

Chuck Junior is armed with a wooden cue which has a wide range of uses. It enables you to hit dinosaurs over the head, hit rocks, set off dinosaur traps, beat away backgrounds. You can use it for standing on to avoid fire; in fact, you may even set it on fire yourself for use as a torch. Junior starts off with three lives and a bottle of baby's milk. Each time you receive a blow some of the milk disappears.

The graphics are excellent throughout, including some huge moving dinosaurs. Unlike most Sega games, this is not easy, as if you're of the opinion that Samurai 2 was hard, forget it! Chuck Rock 2 is one of the best platforming games I have seen in a while and is a worthy investment. - DG

Because this one on the Mega Drive has poor O's rather bad as the other as going to work and in him along O's is a live imagination that they really his name has been a dropped paying him with one option to rescue him.

The rescue mission enables O's to pick up many cables and the way the other is enough to them and makes the way to go on to the other side. However, it is not quite as easy as many people say it is. O's defends himself by using from his right which can also be used to suck items towards him enabling O's to proceed to the next level.

If O's loses a life, there are 100 eggs along the castle that you can trade to which O's can use a power-up. He also speed sheets of eggs on the way work which O's must find in order to work through the level.

An amusing feature is that if you leave the joystick or buttons for a while.

O's shows his boredom and starts tapping his foot and grinning.

Ottifants features an action, bouncy play together with a boss a kill along the way. A solid platform for home but the graphics and so on on the eye-ling side.

SONIC'S TRIPLE WHAMMY

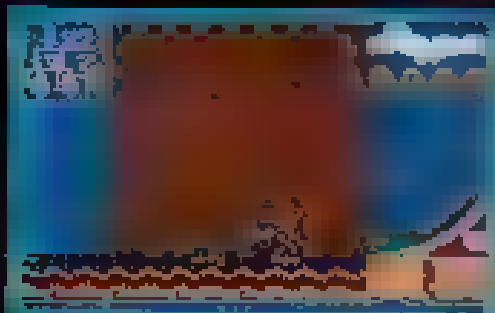

Three new games, three times the fun

It's happened. Sonic '90, Sonic 4'sides, and what you will. Three new Sonic games were released earlier this month - the biggest wave of Sonic activity since Sonic 3. And we've mentioned them all before but, for all you new Readers tell us, here's a reminder of the best new titles.

SONIC SPINBALL (STC 16, 50%), Mega Drive, £44.99

The name says it all - pinball, Sonic-style. If you've played the Casino Night Zone in Sonic 2, you'll have a whole new appeal.

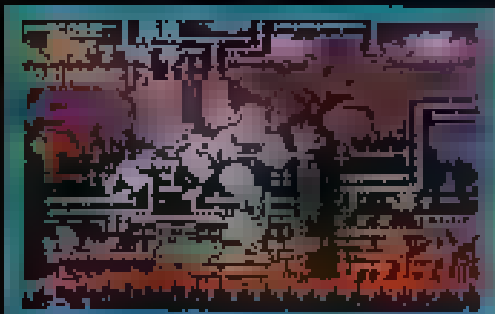

SONIC CHAOS (STC 13, 25%), Master System, £39.99; Game Gear, £39.99

5th Grade Entertainment is taking the adventure to extremes. Play as either Sonic or Tails. Brilliant classic Sonic action for the 8-bit world.

SONIC 3D (not reviewed yet) Mega CD, £44.99

New characters (Amy, Metal Sonic), new worlds, new levels - a whole new Sonic adventure! Graphics and sound as only the Mega CD can produce them. The best-looking Sonic to date.

If that's not enough, Sonic's apartment, there's still Sonic The Hedgehog 2. The official third game in the series is still shrouded in mystery but is rumored to be planned for an early '94 release. STC will bring you more details as soon as possible.

SONIC GETS A-HEAD

If you're going to play, get the prettiest - the shape of a Sonic The Hedgehog bicycle helmet. Not only the most elegant-looking helmet to date, it's also lightweight, well ventilated and carries with it a free twelve-month Crash Damage Warranty. Manufacturers' Quality Product Ltd. have ensured that the Sonic bicycle helmet meets some of the most strictest safety standards in the world. Available now in big head sizes, speeds, and generally round heads at most good cycle shops. The cost of the helmet with air-side is a cool £24.99.

THE BIG CRUNCH

Even though you'd be eating Sonic the Hedgehog in some state beds with a lot of lady discovered 'hedgehog' flavour crisps. But now in full shape of form.

Now with Sonic The Hedgehog Biscuits you can eat scenes from the actual Sonic video games in cheese, salt and vinegar and spicy tomato flavours. Thanks to Benson's Crisps. If you feel a crack attack coming on, they will only let you back a costly trip from major supermarkets and assorted newspapers now.

A CLOCKWORK HEDGEHOG

Time waits for no hedgehog, and why should it when there's a brand new addition to Sonic-related wear - a superb Sonic Watch. Thanks to The Inter-City Watch Co Ltd. - a watch can now take the strain with these clockwork timepieces. On sale for £19.95 nationwide from F Hinds and H Sonnet, the hours and minutes will never pass slowly again.

THE CHALLENGE

This is the biggest Nicelyfully-rendered character ever seen: 35 lighting moves on a huge number of objects including rain-guns and head-bobbed babies strewn liberally, imply slow and urban textures during storylines with multiple endings and a unique 4 Year be hearings of about Eternal Champions especially from SFG very good Nashville 1998 (but see on the screenshot).

JURASSIC PARK

Codes

Disaster movie seems to be popping up everywhere at the moment, even on games, books, DVD, on tape, video, books (I could go on, but I won't). Could it have something to do with a certain film, perhaps? The Jurassic Park game was a nice platform where you could be Dr. Grant or a Raptor, the Raptor being the main of the two is a special, there are the others for all seven levels with Dr. Grant, and the first five levels with the Raptors.

CHUCK ROCK

Shock Rock is an above average performer, heavily rewarded by what Roetz 's' says, quite well. He is regarded as a hero for all you bootstrappers, a little like Bernardini, a bit like...

When a tile is on the upper board press 4 & B Again. A & C A. Down A & D Right and A. The good A right will also play 4 and 12 how still A & B and C together. The puzzle is: smile you more to indicate. 4 and 12 is separated. 5 are played by the game as 1 now, and use the playing key combinations to the wheel.

In Toon!

Dear STC,

I am very curious why Sega have not brought out a Sonic cartoon, including Tails and all the other chums. I am sure it would go down well with children, as it would be fast, exciting and fun to watch. I'm positive other children would agree, so I look forward to seeing them all in a cartoon book. Also, I think Sonic and Tails are Mega GD (Cool Toons).

Ewan Cameron, Larkhall, Lanarkshire.
Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Well, you psychic Angel! The Sonic cartoon series started a few Sundays back (7 November) on Channel 4, so there's no excuse not to drag your earthly body out of bed bright and early.

Heads I Win!

Dear STC,

This is the fifth time I have written in to ask how big Tails is. I also would like to know why he has two tails and what he was like when he was little. I am desperate to know.

Suzanne Swalla, Palslone, Northam.
Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

And I'm a desperate Megadrive. Suzanne who likes to keep you in suspense! All will be revealed in the not too distant future (hint, hint!)

Wat-Son The Menu?

Dear STC,

I came up with an idea for food called Sega Snacks. I've thought of Johnny's Jumping Gingerbread, Ray's Ribs, Rabbitt's Rumble Gum, Parker's Pork, Tail's Turnovers, Amy's Apples - and best of all - Sonic's Sizzling Sausage!

Dalceen Watson, Foraby, Merseyside, Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Oh what is the Megadrive diet of planks, aluminium, and glass? Any, Megadrive or Megadrive's assistant?

Cross-Roads!

Dear STC,

I have a problem which makes me mad - I always miss your mags! My mum won't let me go across the busy road to the newsagents, and she won't take me either. What should I do?

Amanda London, Marble Arch, London.
Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

Send in your full address for a start! And if possible, use the newsagent closest to your house!
